

ASSOCIAÇÃO PORTUGUESA DE
HISTÓRIA ECONÓMICA
E SOCIAL

Ángel Alloza Aparicio, Francisco Fernández Izquierdo e Elena M. García Guerra, Instituto de Historia, Centro de Ciencias Humanas y Sociales, CSIC, Madrid

Breve CV:

Elena García Guerra, Francisco Fernández Izquierdo and Ángel Alloza Aparicio are senior researchers at the Institute of History, Center of Human and Social Sciences, CSIC (Spanish High Council for Scientific research). They are currently involved in a I+D research project titled “Achieving and preserving wealth in Seventeenth Century Spain”, which pursues to establish the existing links between the economic ideas and the development of the daily material life in Spain, on the basis of three distinct fields of the economy: foreign trade, credit, and social perception of productive activities as engines of wealth. Our latest scientific activities can be seen in:

<http://www.cchs.csic.es/es/personal/elena.guerra>

<http://www.cchs.csic.es/es/personal/francisco.fizquierdo>

<http://www.cchs.csic.es/es/personal/angel.alloza>